

The Future of National Student Surveys in the UK and Ireland: reflections, perceptions and challenges

Friday 18 June 2021, 12:00 – 14:00

Programme

TIME	WHAT
12:00 – 12:10	Welcome and introduction from the HEIR Network
12:10 – 12:25	The National Student Survey: Ireland Siobhan Nic Fhlannchadha , Project Manager StudentSurvey.ie; Member Survey Review Group
12:25 – 12:40	The National Student Survey: UK Conor Ryan , Director of External Relations, Office for Students and Chair of the NSS Review Group
12:45 – 13:30	Breakout Discussion Groups Join one of two discussion groups:
Group 1:	National Student Surveys in diverse and complex landscapes <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Making use of national student survey results in an institutional context: what key features are essential for valid and meaningful results? • Student voice for localised issues in a national context. • Marrying the national survey system with internal surveys: how can they be layered together?
Group 2:	Effective use of National Student Survey results <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Making use of national survey results in an institutional context: what key features are essential for useful analysis? • Informing student choice: to what extent do the dual purposes of surveys reduce their reliability as an IR tool? • Limitations and pitfalls: what impedes how results from national student surveys can contribute to planning for future enhancement?
13:30 – 13:55	Plenary: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Discussion Group feedback • Q and A with speakers
13:55 – 14:00	Thanks and close